

e-ENGDET

4th International Conference on e-Engineering and Digital Enterprise Technology Leeds Metropolitan University Civic Quarter Campus

1-3 September 2004

This prestigious event provides a forum for leading figures from industry and academia to meet and exchange information to all aspects of engineering and management.

Keynote presentations include:

Digital Enterprise Technology in Production Networks

Prof. Paul Maropoulos
Director, Design and Manufacturing Research Group University of Durham

The Role of Engineering Design and Data Transfer Tools in the Product Development Cycle (PDM) for Manufacturing SME's

Mark Chillery
General Manager
Chalice Engineering

An EPSRC Perspective on e-Engineering & Digital Enterprise

Dr Andrew Clark
Associate Programme Manager, Innovative Manufacturing Programmes
EPSRC

In addition to the high-profile conference programme, there is also a prime opportunity for suppliers to showcase products and services at the e-ENGDET exhibition.

Conference Fee of £400 also includes:

- Lunch and refreshments
- All conference materials
- Attendance to the civic reception at Leeds Town Hall
- An evening dinner at the Royal Armouries, Leeds

For more information please contact Jack Hunt, PR and Events Officer

j.hunt@leedsmet.ac.uk or visit www.leedsmet.ac.uk/ies/e-ENGDET2004.

e-ENGDET 2004 kindly supported by:

leeds metropolitan university